

Alumni Members Feedback on Curriculum – 2015

Alumni Members Feedback on Curriculum – 2015

Graph 3 narrates on the feedback on curriculum by Alumni members during 2015. It seems that the responses ranged between excellent to good. A majority of 73% respondent's opined coverage of syllabus as excellent, 70% mentioned course content as excellent, 63% said study material availability as excellent, where in 58% respondents gave overall rating as very good. More than half of 53% respondents each said that curriculum relevance and learning values during the course as very good and excellent respectively. The remaining respondents i.e., 45% and 43% each respondents made a mention that usefulness of curriculum as very good, followed by relevance of curriculum and clarity and relevance of textual: study materials as very good.

Action Taken:

The report of the feedback analysis was considered at the time of curriculum development and enrichment. The suggestions were incorporated when framing the new curriculum. New courses, programmers', open electives and project presentations are included in the curriculum. Also, more value added courses were introduced.