Effective Teaching Ethos Based on the Legacy of St. Philomena's College, Mysore

Three Days of Faculty Development Programme (December, 10-12, 2020)

Organized

By

Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC)

BACKGROUND AND INTRODUCTION:

St. Philomena's College has a unique and unmatched legacy built over the last seven and a half decades. The institution has evolved to be a model for harmonious coexistence and learning from diverse faith, language and nationalities. The young generation of academicians needs to emulate from the effective intervention and substantial contribution of the visionaries; the founding fathers, the management and the staff. It is similar to a relay race; here the baton is changed from one team to the other. Every team has equal responsibility to sustain the momentum and realize the vision and the mission envisaged by the founding fathers. The students are the primary stake holders. The ethos of this institution acquired in the campus and class rooms are reflected in their lives. Every endeavour is to be executed in a campus which is vibrant with positive energy, noble thoughts and sustained with constructive activities. With this collective responsibility, the three-day programme for teachers with 0 – 5 years of experience is organized.

OBJECTIVES:

- To create and instill in young teachers the ethos prevailing in the institution.
- To give an insight to the faculty and to ensure access, equity and excellence which were successfully nurtured by the seniors over the past seven decades.

- To equip and groom the young faculty to sustain the legacy of St. Philomena's College with a sense of achievement and satisfaction.

ABOUT THE RESOURCE PERSONS:

All the resource persons are experienced and effective academicians who could contribute substantially in motivating the new entrants.

EXPECTED OUTCOME:

- Ensure the seamless carrying on of the inherited legacy.
- Faculty will be empowered to be effective teachers in the campus.
- To emphasize from syllabus/exam-oriented teaching to a learner centered approach resulting in a holistic formation of the young people.
- Every participant will acquire the necessary coping skills to handle their personal life and professional life successfully.

TARGET AUDIENCE:

Undergraduate and post-graduate teaching faculty with 0-5 years of experience.

ABOUT IQAC, ST. PHILOMENA'S COLLEGE (AUTONOMOUS), MYSORE

Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) has been established as a post-accreditation quality sustenance measure for performance evaluation, assessment and accreditation and quality up-gradation of institutions of higher education. According to the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), every accredited institution of higher education should establish Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) as a post-accreditation quality sustenance measure. The primary responsibility of IQAC is to ensure quality enhancement and sustenance. It ensures the efficiency and effectiveness of measures taken/methods used to provide high-quality education and evaluate the degree to which each task is fulfilled. Since quality enhancement is a continuous process, the IQAC will become a part of the institution's system and work towards the realization of the goals of quality enhancement and sustenance.
