Report on the Release Programme of "Sadhakara Hadiyali" Interview Series

The PG Department of Studies and Research in Journalism and Mass Communication at St. Philomena's College (Autonomous), Mysuru, organized a grand release programme for the "Sadhakara Hadiyali" Interview Series on Friday, 6th December 2024. The event, held at the state-of-the-art Audio Visual Studio in the PG Block, was a celebration of the department's innovative approach to highlighting achievers through interviews. The programme commenced at 11:00 AM, under the distinguished presence of college dignitaries, faculty, and students.

Presiding and Guests of Honour

The programme was presided over by Dr. Ravi J D Saldana, Principal of St. Philomena's College, who officially released the interview series by clicking the "Publish" button on YouTube, symbolizing its digital launch. The occasion was graced by the presence of:

- Rev. Fr. Devid Saghayaraj, Assistant to the Rector
- Dr. Noor Mubasheer C A, PG Coordinator
- Dr. Venugopal Gowda M K, HoD & Assistant Professor
- Dr. Vagdevi H S, Assistant Professor
- Mr. Ravithej S P, Assistant Professor
- Mr. Sanju T S, Assistant Professor

Their presence added to the importance of the event and provided encouragement to the students and faculty.

Programme Details

The event began with a warm welcome by Lhakpa Dolma, a second-year MA Journalism and Mass Communication student, who greeted the guests and audience with enthusiasm. The formal release of the "Sadhakara Hadiyali" Interview Series followed, with the Principal clicking the "Publish" button on YouTube. This symbolic gesture marked the culmination of months of effort by the department and students in conceptualizing, producing, and editing the series.

Following the release, Dr. Ravi J D Saldana addressed the gathering. In his speech, he congratulated the department for their innovative initiative and appreciated the students for their creativity and hard work. He emphasized the significance of such projects in bridging academic learning with real-world applications and praised the department for its consistent achievements.

Insights into the Project

Dr. Venugopal Gowda M K, Head of the Department and the initiator of the "Sadhakara Hadiyali" project, shared insights into the meticulous process behind the creation of the series. He explained that the interview series aimed to showcase the journeys and achievements of notable individuals from various fields, inspiring students and the audience alike. Dr.

Gowda also highlighted the technical and journalistic skills that students honed while working on the series, making it an invaluable learning experience.

Student Contributions

The programme's success was bolstered by the active participation of students, who played various roles:

- Prajwal, a second-year student, served as the Master of Ceremonies (MC), ensuring a smooth flow of the event.
- Vaishnavi S Patil presented an overview of the "Sadhakara Hadiyali" series, discussing its objectives and the impact it aimed to create.
- Several students shared their personal experiences of working on the interview series, narrating stories of how the project enhanced their skills in research, interviewing, editing, and teamwork.
- The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks by Sanika B, who expressed gratitude to the dignitaries, faculty, and peers for their support and encouragement.

The release programme of the "Sadhakara Hadiyali" Interview Series was a resounding success. It not only celebrated the culmination of a creative and educational project but also showcased the collective efforts of the students and faculty of the Department of Journalism and Mass Communication. The Principal's words of encouragement, coupled with the insightful addresses by faculty and students, left a lasting impression on all present.

The "Sadhakara Hadiyali" Interview Series stands as a testament to the department's commitment to fostering innovation and excellence in journalism education, providing students with platforms to showcase their talents and contribute meaningfully to the world of media.
