Organized by: NSS, Youth Red Cross, and Rangers & Rovers Units

Institution: St. Philomena's College (Autonomous), Mysuru

Date: 27th September 2025

Venue: College Auditorium and surrounding areas

The Youth Red Cross Unit of St. Philomena's College (Autonomous), Mysuru, in collaboration with the NSS and Rangers & Rovers, successfully organized an Awareness Rally on the Social and Educational Survey – 2025 on 27 September 2025 at 10:30 a.m.

The NSS, Youth Red Cross, and Rangers & Rovers Units of St. Philomena's College (Autonomous), Mysuru, jointly organized an Awareness Rally on the Social and Educational Survey – 2025 on 27th September 2025 at 10:30 a.m. in the presence of Rev. Dr. Lourdu Prasad Joseph (Rector), Rev. Fr. Jnana Pragasam (Campus Administrator), Rev. Fr. David Sagayaraj (Assistant to Rector), and Dr. Ravi J.D. Saldanha (Principal). A total of 250 volunteers from the three organizations actively participated in the event, which commenced from the College Auditorium and proceeded through nearby routes, raising slogans and carrying placards to spread awareness about the significance of the survey in shaping social and educational progress.

The rally aimed to sensitize both students and the public on the role of surveys in bridging social gaps, ensuring educational opportunities, and promoting community development. The enthusiastic involvement of Youth Red Cross volunteers and their collaboration with NSS and Rangers & Rovers made the event impactful and inspiring. The program concluded at the College Auditorium with an interaction session, where students reflected on their experience and reaffirmed their responsibility toward contributing to social change and national development.
